DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter because Applicant did not amend the claim, as suggested by the Examiner (see previous Office action).

Claim 5 claims "a computer-readable medium" embodying functional descriptive material (i.e., "When functional descriptive material is recorded on some computer-readable medium it becomes structurally and functionally interrelated to the medium and will be statutory in most cases since use of technology permits the function of the descriptive material to be realized"). However, in this instant, "a computer-readable medium" is not defined and is thus non-statutory for that reason (see USPTO Notice:22 November 2005; Interim Guidelines for Examination of Patent Applications for Patent Subject matter Eligibility; Annex IV – Computer-related Non-Statutory Subject Matter).

In order to make it statutory, the Examiner suggests to amend claim 5 to

-- a computer readable medium encoded with computer executable instructions, that when executed by the computer, cause the computer to perform a method for multiplexing downloadable music content data together with program information onto a transport stream for broadcast, comprising: ...

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1, 3-8, and 26-38 are allowed in view of applicant remark dated 02/09/2007.

Note: Claim 5 needs to overcome the above 35 USC 101 rejection in order to be allowed, as indicated.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
